Happy New Year

We extend most sincere and hearty thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed upon us during the closing year, which has been by far the largest in our history, and trust that we have merited a continuance of your patronage.

To the many whom we could not serve during the busy rush of the holidays we offer our apologies, and regret that our facilities were unequal to the demand with which they were taxed.

We have renewed our stock, and ask that we be granted another opportunity to supply your needs.
